What worked for you in the process of betatesing + feedback collection?

- Hiring a new person to do it instead of me
- having a list of people I have asked to fill it
- well, its working process, didnt receive as many responses as expected, hope for greater number until

deadline

What did not for you in the process of betatesing + feedback collection, and how would you have done it differently?

4 responses

We still didnt reach the number necessary people didnt respond, need to change the strategy

Reach people, push more the people and to have a structured strategy despite the huge effort put in the dissemination there is a struggle in reaching the numbers, seems that this online betatesting is not working with the target group and we are facing some difficulties and trying to establish a different strategy.
